

Fukushima : Myth and Reality

A Report of the East Japan Radiation Hygiene Survey

Table of Contents

Frontispieces : Field Survey at Various Sites

About the Author · 2

List of Tables and Figures · 5

List of Columns · 5

Introduction · 6

Outline of Results from Survey · 10

1	March 11, 2011 and just after .....	14
2	From the day of the earthquake until the field survey··	20
3	The portable laboratory developed through field surveys of nuclear disasters in the world .....	22
4	Radiation hygiene survey from Sapporo to Sendai (April 6 and 7, 2011)······	25
5	Survey of radioiodine accumulated in the thyroid of people in Fukushima Prefecture (April 8 and 9, 2011)··	29
6	Survey of the 20km evacuation zone around the Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Station .....	32
7	Six-level dose classification from hazardous to safe ranges .....	36
8	Nobody in Fukushima suffered radiation dose of level C or above .....	38
9	Radiation in East Japan decreased drastically within the initial 60 days .....	39

10	Fukushima did not become a second Chernobyl	41
11	Prime Minister Kan's Government left livestock to die away	43
12	Revisiting the health problems of Chernobyl	45
13	Internal exposure: Low radiation dose from the Fukushima accident, and science behind it	46
14	Scientific errors committed by the Nuclear Emergency Response Headquarters and the associated risk	48
15	The unprecedented nuclear disaster in Uyghur and its nuclear yellow sand descended upon the whole of Japan	50
16	Recovery of the disaster-stricken areas is definitely possible	51
	Afterword Urgent debriefing in Tokyo	54

Appendix

	Fukushima: Neither Chernobyl, Nor Hiroshima	55
--	---	----

Cover Illustration: Kayoko Kobayashi

(The author is grateful to Mr. Hiroshi Takenaka, reporter of the SHUKAN SHINCHO, for his company during the survey in Fukushima Prefecture and for providing some photographs.)